Answer 2 (two) questions from the 4 (four) questions below.  ☐ Question 1 The MFSA has a wide range of supervisory and enforcement powers over Maltese licensed credit institutions. Discuss.   ☐ Question 2 The suretyship regime under Maltese law contains several default rules which parties may, to varying degrees, modify by agreement. By reference to the relevant provisions of the Civil Code and the Commercial Code, and to applicable case law, critically examine the key default positions applicable to sureties under Maltese law and the extent to which such default positions may be departed from.   ☐ Question 3 Banking insolvency in Malta lacks a unified legislative framework, instead drawing upon a multitude of disparate legal sources. To what extent do you agree with this view? Discuss with reference to the relevant legislation.   ☐ Question 4 The evolution of banking law has gradually introduced a broader set of legal protections for bank clients and prospective clients, a development that stands in stark contrast to earlier historical practice. Critically discuss.
